IDAHO PROPERTY SHOWING LARGE VEIN OF ORE

Produced in Excess of Million Dollars During Early History of Operations

General Manager J. M. Fulton has authorized the statement that a very promising shoot of ore has been discovered in the deep workings of the Idaho-Maryland mine. The discovery is in what is known as the Dorsey mine area and extends further east than any previous discovery and into virgin ground. Explorations have not yet disclosed the extent of the shoot or what is above or below.

The discovery is approximately 1200 feet from the surface and is reached by way of the 100-foot vertical shaft and the long incline extending to the east. The work on extending the vertical shaft to greater depths is under way and good progress is reported. The Idaho-Maryland has been in process of reopening by the Bulkley Wells interests for three years and large sums of money have been expended but at the Idaho mine the Coleman brothers 40 years ago took millions of dollars and laid the basis of the colossal fortunes they later acquired. Tentative efforts have been made from time to time since they parted with their interests to place the property on a large producing basis, but the mine is at such a depth that a considerable amount of capital has been required, and this has not been available until now.

PROGRESSIVES ORGANIZE TO FIGHT SHIP SUBSIDY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 18.—Immediate mobilization of progressive members of congress to work for a well defined program was proposed today by Senator La Follette in a statement arising among other things out of the administration ship subsidy bill and proposed railroad anti-strike legislation.

AMUSEMENTS

FINE BILL AT BUTLER TODAY

The feature picture at the Butler today is Mary Miles Minter in "South of Suva," a story of love, adventure and thrills on an island in the South seas. What is a wife's duty? An ugly face leered through the open window, the face of a dirty beach comber. The white girl stared at the man in the window. Suddenly she recognized that face. Suddenly she knew. It was the face of the man she had married. What was this young wife's duty. Full of love and joyous expectations she had come to join her husband on a tropical island, and found him only a little more than a beast. But she stuck to the ship, even though it had become a wreck, stuck until one day when she had to flee for her life to a neighboring island, and this is the thrilling story of what happened there. Added to the program, the fourth round of "The Leather Pushers." Tomorrow, Tom Moore in a comedy drama, "From the Ground Up," and the Adventures of Robinson Crusoe. Monday, "Manslaughter," the picture that has just closed a five weeks engagement in San Francisco.

The Eagles hall will be the bright spot in Tonopah tonight. Big dance with the best music in the city will furnish the entertainment. N18-11
